

Switzerland – Geneva

ILO

Work description

Renovation of ILO headquarters in Genève for a total surface of 100,000 sqm. The project involves the following activities: building survey, architectural, structural and MEP study and design of renovation under consideration of applicable norms and standards for building and utilities: renovation of building façade and «colonnade» glazing; restructuring of office floors with meeting rooms partial renovation of conference rooms, theater, service areas and underground utility rooms assessment of concrete structures.

Client
Ilo

Date
2012

Cost of work
125 M€

Services

- Preliminary,
- Permit and Tender design of MEP systems,
- Energy modeling,
- Study for LEED certification.